About

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery & AOMSI

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery has evolved in a big way over the past 5 decades, from performing simple oral surgical procedures to achieving excellence in complex Maxillofacial procedures, our branch has truly metamorphosed.

Oral and Maxillofacial procedures range from surgical extraction of teeth, Maxillofacial trauma, to repairing cleft and palate defects, Oral benign and malignant lesions surgical management (including reconstruction), facial aesthetic procedures, orthognathic surgeries for facial deformities, and even temporomandibular disorder treatment and many more.

The Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons of India (AOMSI) is the national body of all Oral and Maxillofacial surgeons across the country comprising of over 10,000 members.

It is affiliated to the international association (IAOMS) and the Asian body (AAOMS). It's motto is to promote the scope and reach of OMFS across the country through scientific deliberation conferences and workshops organized all through the year.

The 50th annual AOMSI Conference brings together experts and professionals from the same fraternity for networking, knowledge sharing and to discuss the latest advancements and research. It is deemed to be a grand affair with national as well as international faculty being brought together under the same roof.

With an expected turnout of over 3000 delegates for the Golden Jubilee conference and an open to all trade fair, we expect a magnanimous turn out of not only oral and Maxillofacial surgeons, but also Dentists, ENT surgeons, General Surgeons, Aesthetic surgeons, onco surgeons and many many more to explore the variety and quality of the multiple products to be offered by our stalls.
